

MERCHANDISING

halos

pure goodness

Great for snacking, kids' lunch boxes, and families on the go. Display packaging varieties.

Halos contain vitamin D that helps keep cold and flu viruses away.

For maximum sales, place Halos fruit stand POS display at the front of the department and cross-merchandise with grapes. Grapes add color and variety to your display.

Merchandise Halos outside of the produce department by using the Halos tree POS display for extra sales. Display in the pharmacy for those looking for natural cold and flu remedies.

Merchandise Halos towards health-conscious shoppers during the new year. They contain nutrients that help fight cancer as well as promote healthy skin and protect the brain against age-related mental decline. They also contain a nutrient that helps fight weight gain.
