

Labor Day

PRODUCE DISPLAYS

Help shoppers take the hassle out of preparing their end of summer celebrations by creating displays full of last-chance summer staples. Don't forget to include veggie and fruit trays for convenience and impulse sales!

Red Seedless Watermelon
#3328 40ct Bin
#5335 60ct Bin

Garden Cut
28oz Vegetable Tray
#12043

Beefsteak Tomatoes
#179 4x5
#183 5x6

Garden Cut
2 lb Fruit Tray
#12042

Bicolor Corn
#2891

Expand your watermelon display with refrigerated melon slices.

Display on large tables up front and in bins. Place a secondary display in the meat department.

Indianapolis Fruit

Grover Cleveland made Labor Day a federal holiday in 1894. The holiday, celebrated on the first Monday in September, pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers, and symbolizes the end of summer. It is celebrated with parties, parades and athletic events.

